

SENSORY STORY

THE ROYAL OAK

This sensory story will help me know what to expect when I visit the Royal Oak

The Royal Oak is a cosy country pub

The Royal Oak has a family friendly campsite in the grounds with grass pitches

The Royal Oak is on the Tissington & High Peak walking and cycling trails

WHEN I VISIT THE ROYAL OAK, I MIGHT SEE:

The cosy interiors and traditional fireplace

People sat around the bar and drinking area, ordering drinks and chatting

The front of house staff serving customer and carrying plates

Tents & camper vans pitched up on the camp site

WHEN I VISIT THE ROYAL OAK, I MIGHT HEAR:

The wind blowing through the trees and birds tweeting whilst sitting outside in the garden

The sound of chattering and laughing when people are all dining together

The sound of the chefs talking and cooking in the kitchen

The sound of dogs barking outside or in the pub.

WHEN I VISIT THE ROYAL OAK, I MIGHT TOUCH OR FEEL:

The feeling of a cold glass from a freshly poured drink

The heat from a cosy fire when its cold outside

The soft comfortable texture of our cosy furnishings

The feeling of the grass and plants in the garden

WHEN I VISIT THE ROYAL OAK, I MIGHT TASTE:

One of our delicious home made shortcrust pies

A home made dessert

Yummy vegetarian or vegan food

A pint of local beer

WHEN I VISIT THE ROYAL OAK, I MIGHT SMELL:

Freshly cooked food

Farm animals in the neighbouring fields

The smell of the herb garden outside

Fresh coffee
